Information Services & Use 8 (1988) 287–288
Elsevier Science Publishers B.V., Amsterdam – Printed in The Netherlands

Author/Title Index to volume 8 (1988)

(Numbers appearing within parentheses before the page numbers indicate the issue in which an item was published.)

Aitchison, T.M., Aspects of quality (2/3/4) 49–61
Altom, D.W., P. Gilbert and R. Meacham, Automated duplicate elimination in bibliographic systems (2/3/4) 147–157

Berger, M.C., Document delivery by database producers – closing the loop (2/3/4) 195–200
Bourne, C.P., New product opportunities as a spin off from conventional database publishing (2/3/4) 201–204
Burnum, J.: see S.J. Freiband (5/6) 239–248

Cawkell, A.E., Book Reviews (5/6) 263–272
Clark, J.E., Winning the Senate Productivity Award (2/3/4) 169–175
Cooper, N.R.: see D.U. Wilde (1) 23–29

de Stricker, U., A menu interface to formulate Boolean logic – Can it be done (1) 39–46

Fisher, M.T., Overview of pricing strategies in the electronic information industry (2/3/4) 73–78
Freiband, S.J. and J. Burnum, The US Trade Representative (USTR) Trade Thesaurus: development, innovation and use (5/6) 239–248

Gilbert, P.: see C.M. Minecci (2/3/4) 147–157
Grooms, D.W., Quality Assurance of text and image databases at the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (2/3/4) 161–165

Hearty, J.A., Full text primary information online: today's problems, tomorrow's solutions (2/3/4) 83–105
Hodge, G.: see C.M. Minecci (2/3/4) 133–138

Kostenbauder, S., Pricing issues: user perspectives of database pricing, deep pockets and empty wallets (2/3/4) 85–90

Landau, H.B., International ownership in the U.S. information market place: myths, paradoxes and ironies (2/3/4) 63–71
Leggate, P., A multi-user microcomputer system for small libraries (1) 31–38
Lucey, J., Productivity with PC's (2/3/4) 139–145

Maykrantz, W.J., The PTO's patent image retrieval system (5/6) 257–262
Meacham, R.: see C.M. Minecci (2/3/4) 147–157
Meglio, D., Telecommuting brings bountiful benefits to information industry employers and employees (2/3/4) 177–185

0167-5265/88/$03.50 © 1988, Elsevier Science Publishers B.V.

Minecci, C.M. and G. Hodge, Machine-aided indexing: productivity and organizational implications (2/3/4) 133–138

Nakamoto, H., Technical and social environments of electronic publishing in Japan (5/6) 205–215
Nkereuwem, E.E., Computers and the Nigerian academic library service in the 21st century (5/6) 229–237

Pierson, R., The evolving Ameritech network (2/3/4) 115–121
Prickett, D., Gateways (2/3/4) 123–129

Rosenberg, M.D.: see D. Thomas (5/6) 249–255

Salton, G., Thoughts about modern retrieval technologies (2/3/4) 107–113
Schappi, J.V., Plateauing: an information age phenomenon (2/3/4) 187–191
Segal, J.S., Library and information networks: centralization and decentralization (1) 3–12
Suomi, R., Inter-organizational information systems in the insurance industry (5/6) 217–228

Tabor, R.B., Integrated information for health care (1) 13–21
Thomas, D. and M.D. Rosenberg, Information Science Abstracts: an overview of history, purpose and goals. Part I (5/6) 249–255
Trudell, L., Pricing online information on the 90's: an online service viewpoint (2/3/4) 79–83

Wilde, D.U. and N.R. Cooper, The benefits of using an outside search service (1) 23–29